LEST WE FORGET 1980

Volume LXIV
UNION UNIVERSITY
Jackson, Tennessee

In each of us there is a constant need of renewal — a time to begin again. Sometimes obvious, often not obvious at all, this indwelling need can be a major factor in the quest to know God more fully. This search for a new beginning often comes at the point when we realize that our lives are stagnant, with our present circumstances not as they should be . . . even so we also should walk in newness of life.

The fall semester was a time for new faces, new names and most of all new beginnings. In each of us there was that constant need of renewal. . . but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. II Cor. 4:16

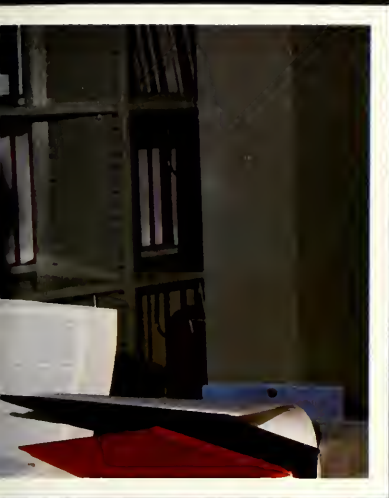

Linda Edgar receives her first mail.

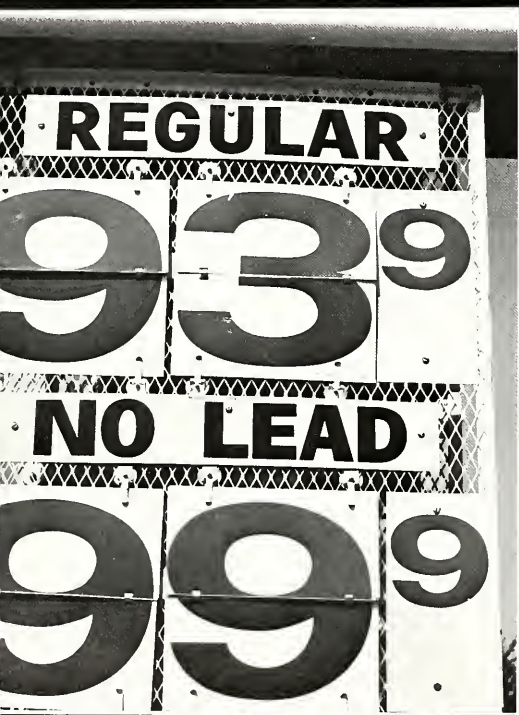

To keep pace with life's most subtle changes, we had to search daily for new strength. If ever we were to fulfill our greatest potential, there was an urgent need to search even more diligently.

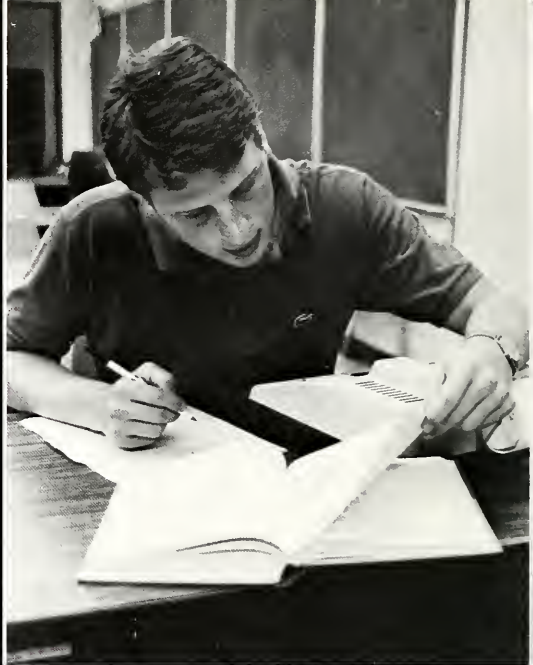

Far more important than physical strength was spiritual strength. We had to look at our lives with a true perspective to find spiritual renewal. If we could grow in spirit, we could be more attuned to God and ourselves. In order to grow, however, we first had to examine our souls and satisfy ourselves that there was a right spirit there.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. Psalms 51:10

Up, up and away.

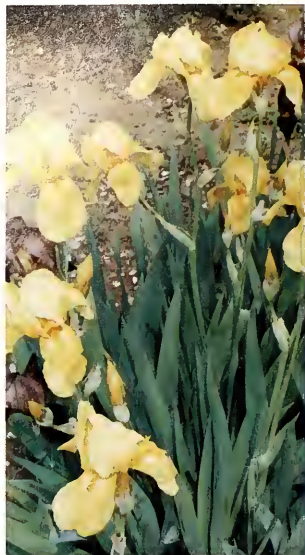

Tim Barron displays ambition in action.

A friend indeed.

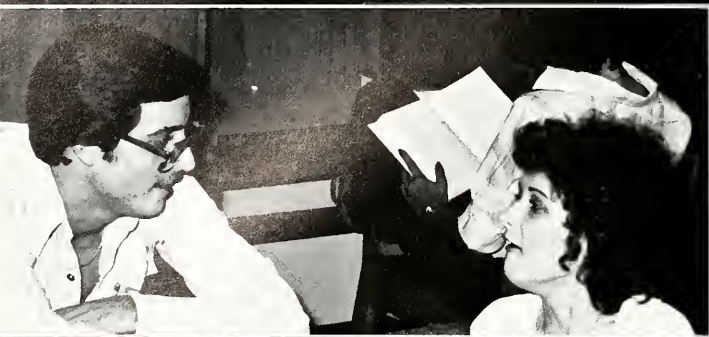

Knowledge is a tool by which we can correct and improve on the mistakes caused by the unknowing and the uncaring. As Christians, we go through changes which aid us in the search for true knowledge. . . . Seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds, and have put on the new man, that is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. Col. 3:9 and 10

Golden memories of the old campus.

New faces, new roommates, new friends.

"I'll swap my blue for your green."

And so, Union became a chosen path for a time for so many faces, so many lives, each seeking different directions. The unifying characteristic was the search of each person — the search for a meaningful role in the world and the attitudes to assume in playing that role. All efforts were vain without that constant resurgence, the steady renewing of the spirit.

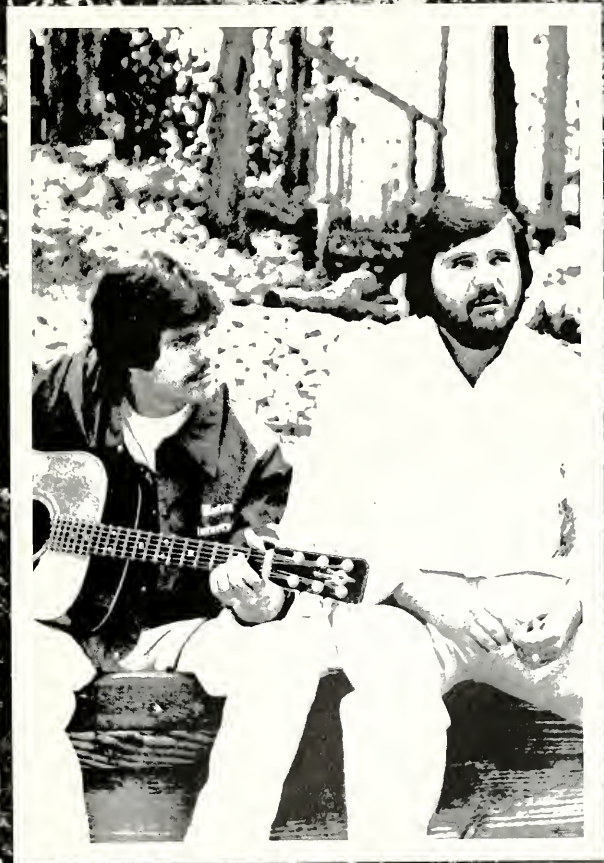

... Behold, I make all things new

Graduation Held In Coliseum Because of Rain

A late afternoon flash flood forced the 1979 Graduation exercises from the planned East Campus site to the Jackson Coliseum. There the 253 seniors were addressed by Congressman Ed Jones and then received their diplomas.

The Commencement was preceded by a luncheon given in honor of the seniors on Friday, June 1. The luncheon, which is an annual affair, was given by the alumni of Union University. On Saturday, June 2, Baccalaureate services were held in the G. M. Savage Memorial Chapel. Rev. Thomas J. Madden delivered the message. Baccalaureate was followed by an afternoon reception for the graduates and their families.

After the conferring of the degrees at the Commencement exercises, Glenn Moore, senior class president, brought the senior class presentation. The ceremony ended with the presentation of awards.

Registration . . . the start of something new

On July 23, 1979, yet another group of anxious freshmen invaded the campus of Union University and took the first step in the tedious process of making Union their new home. During this day set aside for freshmen registration, the newcomers were greeted by the friendly faces of their faculty advisor and by the less friendly sight of long, long lines.

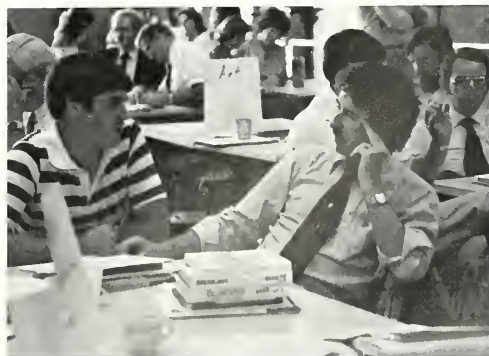

Upperclassmen were not exempt from this torture, however. There were opportunities for the upper classmen to register and those familiar lines and all the registration headaches were waiting for the returning troops.

The Joys of Moving In

On September 3, each person, now living on campus, experienced the privilege of moving into his or her own apartment. One main objective arose from this task — to get the belongings in without making a large number of trips. For this purpose, each one tended to bring along a friend or a set of parents. After each sentimental article had been placed on the shelf and all the socks had been stacked (or thrown) into the right drawer, everyone began to feel "at home."

There's more?

Judy Smith unpacks her frisbee with a minimum of effort.

Married Housing Is An Added Advantage

In the spring of 1979, the college added a married housing complex. This was an innovation for the Union University campus as Union had never before offered living quarters for married couples. The addition was quickly taken advantage of as eleven families moved in immediately.

By the time fall semester began, all twenty units were full with a waiting list of fourteen. Some of these apartments were occupied by single women in order to alleviate the overflow of those registered to live in the women's dorms. It was still necessary, however, for some to live on the old campus again this year, at least for a while. Fifteen married couples lived in the new complex in the fall.

The requirement for application to live in married housing is that either the husband or the wife must be a student enrolled at Union.

Tommy and Jeannie Parchman were one of the first couples to move into the married student housing complex.

The complex consists of twenty individual apartment units.

Fall Is Marked By "Big Events"

Governor Lamar Alexander stands with Trayce Young and Kathy Forrester at Union on the evening of October 16 where he was the featured speaker at an appreciation dinner for state representative Jimmy Wallace.

Dr. and Mrs. Adrian Rogers arrive on campus November 30 as he spoke during chapel service and was honored at the unveiling of his portrait in the Southern Baptist Convention President's Corridor. Dr. Rogers has been a trustee of Union University since 1974.

As a project to raise money for summer missions, the Baptist Student Union sponsored a Haunted House. All campus organizations were invited to participate by sponsoring a room. The venture proved to be very successful financially and frighteningly fun for everyone involved.

Rev. W. W. Clark painted an enlarged map of the Mediterranean world in the C-6 classroom. Union is the third school he has painted this type of map for as a contribution.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jelks pose with Dr. Craig in front of the new women's dormitory named in memory of their daughter, Cynthia Jelks, who was a student at Union until her death in 1976.

President's Reception Is Annual Event

The President's Reception is an annual affair to which the student body, the faculty, administration, and staff are invited. This year it was once again held in the cafeteria. Attendance was relatively unhampered by rain, as the guests seemed to ignore the weather outside while enjoying good food and conversation.

The reception provides a good opportunity to become better acquainted with faculty members. Also it gives the average student a chance to meet members of the administration that he or she would not ordinarily come into contact with.

BSU Retreat Held in Brandon Springs, Kentucky

Several members of the BSU spent a refreshing weekend on a retreat at Brandon Springs in Kentucky. The 120 people attending the retreat participated in various activities during the weekend. The theme of this year's retreat was "Growing in Christ." There were Bible studies each night with services afterwards. One of the highlights of the weekend was a Gong Show conducted Saturday night in which many BSU members displayed their talent (or lack of it) in skits, songs, and other entertaining acts.

Sunday morning brought the retreat to a close. A song from Amy Evans and the concluding message delivered by Larry Murphy put a good wrap on the weekend. Even though bodies were tired and many were sleepy, the retreat was a time of growth and spirits were renewed.

A song from George Guthrie gives opportunity for reflection.

Sunday morning services were held outdoors in the amphitheater.

Halloween Party Gives Vent to Self-expression

Halloween at Union this year was highlighted by a pumpkin cutting contest followed by a costume contest. Any school organization could participate in the pumpkin cutting contest. The Ministerial Association took the first place honors with Wade Vickrey serving as the carver.

The costume contest featured a fairly large number of participants who were dressed in every conceivable costume from Mickey Mouse to the Incredible Hulk. The winners were Ruth Lincoln and Kellye Carpenter who were dressed as Raggedy Ann and Andy.

It Was a Grand Night for Singing

As in previous years, Phi Mu Alpha and Sigma Alpha Iota once again sponsored All-Sing, a campus-wide singing contest. Participation was down this year due to differences of opinion concerning the rules involved. The theme for 1979 was "It's a grand night for singing."

Winners of large group competition and women's ensemble was Chi Omega. Winner of men's ensemble was Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Dr. Ernie and Dr. Pat Pinson proved to be a highly entertaining duo as emcees for the 1979 singing event.

Homecoming Is Held Twice in 1979

In the last few years, old man winter has been known to interrupt Homecoming in the rudest of ways. It is because of the weather, then, that the annual event which is usually scheduled for February was changed this year to the middle of November. Except that the activities only added to the chaos of an already busy semester, the November Homecoming worked out very satisfactorily, weather-wise, and otherwise too.

The theme for this school year's Homecoming was "Try To Remember" and was probably most effectively advertised about campus and elsewhere by T-shirts sold by the S.G.A. Some of the activities during the early part of the week were a Faculty Follies night, open dorms, and a hot dog cookout. Wednesday was a day for spirit as the cheerleaders led the student body in a rousing Pep Rally. Wednesday night the movie "Hot Lead and Cold Feet" was shown by the Resident Life Board in the cafeteria with free pop corn and cokes as an added attraction.

The Pep Rally was highlighted by a zany skit.

The cheerleaders were successful in doing their job to raise spirit.

Coaches Birmingham and Swope introduced each member of their teams.

Sharon Dixon played guardian angel on Z.T.A.'s winning float.

Chi Omega displayed artistic originality with their float.

The best use of limited space was made by Lambda Chi Alpha.

Late Thursday afternoon the Lady Bulldogs beat Blue Mountain in their second game of the season. At 7:30 in the evening the Symphonic Band performed in its annual pops concert. The group played pops and light classical music. One piece included guest harpist, Bill Butner. At 8:30 p.m. the Homecoming play premiered in the theatre.

The Homecoming parade was held on Friday afternoon. The old idea of floats was brought back into being this year with one slight modification. The floats were built on to pick-up trucks instead of trailers, the reason being that this was a trial run of sorts and trailers are not easy to come by these days. Zeta Tau Alpha won first place for its float and Alpha Tau Omega won first place for its decorated car.

The winning car was A.T.O.'s intimidating "death mobile."

S.A.E. used a historical theme for their float.

Friday evening, students enjoyed a candlelight dinner in the cafeteria. The delectable menu featured lobster tail as the main course. Later in the evening, a "Bulldog Blowout" was held at the Old Hickory Mall. It was a community pep rally and was a successful attempt to let people know about Union's Homecoming.

Late Friday night a bonfire was held near the Men's complex. Following the bonfire, the junior and senior classes sponsored an "Almost Anything Goes" in which organizations competed in zany relay games in the gym. Chi Omega was the winner of that event.

The bonfire made a warm spot in a chilly night.

Jeff Law waits his turn in the "pass the orange under the chin" relay.

The "shoe change-up" was just one of the wild relays that eight different organizations participated in.

Trayce Young and Teresa Luna assist with registration.

Zeta alums enjoy reminiscing at their open house.

Mr. John Dougan and Mr. Bob Elliott open the cornerstone box from Barton Hall which burned earlier this year.

Saturday morning, the annual alumni-student reception was held. Receptions were held in both the Zeta Tau Alpha lodge and the Chi Omega lodge. The alumni awards banquet was held at noon in the cafeteria. The highlight of the banquet was when the box from the cornerstone of Barton Hall on the old campus was opened. Several interesting historical items were found within.

Andrea Rasberry serves Dr. and Mrs. Barefoot at the Chi Omega open house.

There was a large attendance at the awards luncheon.

There were two further performances of "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown" in the theater, one on Friday night and another Saturday evening after the Homecoming ballgame.

Various organizations participated in Homecoming by selling commemorative articles. The Student Government Association sold T-shirts and Union Bulldog buttons. Alpha Tau Omega Little Sisters sold Homecoming mums and Sigma Alpha Epsilon Little Sisters sold shakers. Linguae Mundi sponsored a bakesale during the day.

Parade chairman Randy Hicks presents Kim Dean a trophy for Zeta Tau Alpha's Homecoming float.

Shakers were sold by the Little Sisters of Minerva.

Kim Weatherly stands with Steve Moore and Kenny Lloyd before she relinquishes her crown as last year's Homecoming Queen.

Kenny Lloyd is presented the Charles Schuler award by last year's recipient, Mike Williams.

The Lady Bulldogs beat U. T. Martin in an exciting game that began at 2:30 p.m. After the game Donna Dodds was crowned Homecoming Queen. Her court included Viki Ellis, Terry Young, Valerie Besheres, and Lu Ann Ross. Senior Kenny Lloyd was awarded the Charles Schuler Award and Beverly Pryor was honored with the Gracie Williams award. These ceremonies were followed by the men's game in which the Bulldogs defeated Tusculum College.

The Lady Bulldogs downed the U.T.M. Lady Pacers 95-73.

The Homecoming Court included Valerie Besheres, Viki Ellis, Donna Dodds, Queen; Terry Young, and Lu Ann Ross.

Reflections

On Saturday night, March 8, thirteen young ladies, representing the various organizations on campus, competed for the title of Miss Union University 1980. The theme for the pageant was Reflections and was directed by David Steele and Amanda Patton.

The pageant's Mistress of Ceremonies was Susan Perkins Botsford, Miss America—1978. The Announcer for the affair was Terry Romaine. The Miss Union Pageant Orchestra under the direction of Charles Huffman and the Pageant Singers provided entertainment for the evening.

This year's judges were Jack Smith, Ken Brixey, Teresa Epps, Bruce Tolbert, and ay Gardner Bates.

Special thanks go to Miss Maggie Nell Brewer, and Sarah Hammett. Also to Andy Roby, Andy Dailey, Tony Hollingsworth and many others who made the pageant possible.

Winning the pageant entitled her to a $250 wardrobe from Parks-Belk and a $300 scholarship given by Union University. She also won the chance to represent Union in the Miss Tennessee Pageant in June.

Lest We Forget

A pretty ~~cover~~ does not a good yearbook make and that is why a yearbook staff has to be conscientious and consistent. Co-operation also comes in handy. Although everything possible this year was done to cut back on the frantic, last-minute problems and chaos in general, the effects of Murphy's Law at times caught up with the staff. However, with a great deal of mental stamina and a certain amount of co-operation, the group worked well together to produce the book.

After Editor Kim Bell and Associate Editor Tony Hollingsworth were appointed, the theme of "renewal" was selected. In the summer, Kim Bell attended a yearbook conference in Kentucky at Georgetown University, which was sponsored by The Inter-Collegiate Press, the yearbook's publisher. Mrs. Betty Foellinger served as adviser. The 1980 staff has tried to give a complete picture of Union's campus life. Not pictured are Paul Shearin and David Steele.

Panhellenic and I.F.C. Work For The Betterment of Greeks

The Panhellenic Council at Union is an extension of the National Panhellenic Council. The NPC is an organization of twenty-six national sororities banded together for the furtherance of sorority life, scholarship and intellectual accomplishment.

The Panhellenic Council at Union works to maintain sorority life and inter-sorority relations within the college. It works to cooperate with the college to maintain the social standards of the school. This year, the main activity of the Panhellenic Council was to co-ordinate formal rush and to enforce rush rules.

The Inter-fraternity Council is the governing body for fraternity activities. Regulations for formal rush and membership recruitment are composed and enforced by the Inter-fraternity Council. The I.F.C. became more active than usual this year when protestations against All-Sing rules arose. The I.F.C. worked with the All-Sing Committee to iron out the problems. Delegates from each fraternity compose I.F.C.

The Beta Tau chapter of Alpha Tau Omega was chartered at Union on February 28, 1894. The national organization had been established twenty-nine years earlier at Richmond, Virginia. Beta Tau chapter is now the oldest ATO chapter to never close its doors.

Alpha Tau Omega was the first national fraternity founded after the Civil War. It was established to unite fraternally the young men of the South with those of the North and to foster a brotherhood dedicated to achieving and cherishing permanent peace.

Once again this year, the chapter was very active in campus and civic events. At the annual Sweetheart Banquet held in Memphis, Miss Kim Weatherly was named the 1980 Alpha Tau Omega Sweetheart. The outgoing Sweetheart was Miss Karen Smith.

The Beta Omega Chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha was founded at Union University on December 12, 1935, becoming the seventy-third link to be established in the chain of chapters. Since that time the Beta Omega chapter has grown to be a unique group of hardworking young women who are bonded together by the goals and sisterhood of Zeta Tau Alpha. The foundation precept of Zeta Tau Alpha is love. Its national philanthropy is working with the mentally retarded citizen.

Zeta Tau Alpha was founded at Longwood College for Women, Farmville, Virginia, October 15, 1898. Four years later in 1902, it became the only national women's fraternity to be chartered by a special act of state legislation.

In 1939, the fraternity merged with Theta Kappa Nu, which was the largest merger in the history of the fraternity world. It was established on the Union University campus in 1961 when the Lambda Zeta-Zeta was installed. It received its charter on December 5, 1964.

The fraternity's purposes are represented by the colors purple, green and gold, and the white rose. Its open motto is "Naught without Labor."

Lambda Chi Alpha is dedicated to understanding and living the ideals of true brotherhood. Its members foster the highest aims of morality and learning.

Founded at the University of Alabama in 1856, Sigma Alpha Epsilon enjoys one of the richest heritages in the Greek world. This heritage was brought to Union University in 1857 when the Tennessee Eta chapter was installed. The colors of the fraternity are royal purple and old gold. The purple violet is the official flower of the fraternity. Sigma Alpha Epsilon has enjoyed the longest existence of any fraternal organization on the Union campus.

The expression of individuality is the most valuable characteristic of the brotherhood of SAE. In turn, the outstanding qualities of each of these individuals provides the force that unites the fraternity.

In 1924, the Upsilon Chapter of Chi Omega was established at Union University. From those thirty women, Chi Omega has grown to a membership of sixty-five women. The national organization was founded on April 5, 1895 at the University of Arkansas. The sorority is based on six purposes and has scholarship as the foremost purpose. Upsilon chapter is the fourth oldest chapter of Chi Omega in the nation.

The open motto of Chi Omega is "Hellenic Culture and Christian Ideals" and their flower is the white carnation. The colors of Chi Omega are cardinal and straw.

Boasting a heritage of success and honor, Chi Omega continues to make headlines at Union. Among its many achievements, Chi Omega once again seized first place in the 1979 All-Sing.

Bulldogs Expect A Winning Season

For the first time in many years, the Union University Bulldogs are favored to win the VSAC baseball crown this season. It is no wonder. Last season the Bulldogs raced to their first winning season in many years.

Last year's young team pulled out many stunning victories including a 9-8 win over Belmont and a 4-3 win over Trevecca. Both of those teams were VSAC co-champs last spring. It was inexperience that cost the team a chance at the VSAC crown last year, but Head Coach David Blackstock feels that this year will be different.

"Last year we were young and inexperienced, but this year we have all our top players returning. I feel that we have the best chance of winning we've had in some time. We must have good hitting and pitching to make our year successful."

Key play will be counted upon from seniors Mike Puckett and Mickey Thomas. Thomas has had two successive .400 hitting seasons while Puckett, a power hitter batted .370. Johnny Cole, a junior, is considered by many to be the best third baseman in the VSAC. He will be relied upon heavily for team leadership.

Baseball is a tricky game. There is no such thing as a sure win in this sport. The Bulldogs have a tough schedule ahead of them including games against Memphis State and Mississippi State. However, consistent play should prove the Bulldogs to be winners once again.

Women's Tennis Team Expected To Come Back Strong In Third Year

In their third year of existence, the Women's Tennis Team has yet to have its first losing season. In the spring of 1979, the women's team placed fourth in the VSAC tournament. This year they will face a tougher schedule. It will consist of at least eighteen matches. Most of these matches will be played against VSAC members in addition to a match with Southwestern at Memphis.

Graduation took its toll last year leaving only three returnees for the 1980 team. These members are Sandra Arnold, Karen McWherter and Kim Weatherly. The newcomers joining the team are Tammy White, Leanne Simmons, Annette Edmonds, Lu Ann Ross and Roxie Denniston. The team also acquired the services of a trainer for the first time this year. Handling this task was Sally Paire.

The industrious team worked hard during the year, selling cushions to raise money to pay their road expenses. They also showed their creativity when they chose to design and make their own warm-up suits this season as opposed to buying them. The Women's Tennis Team's coaches are Mr. Bill Truex and Mr. Ray Vunk.

Sandra Arnold has played both years of the team's existence.

Tammy White is a transfer from Dyersburg State.

Freshman Annette Edmonds shows her forehand.

Karen McWherter has also played two years.

Spring Season Looks Encouraging For Men's Tennis Team

This year Ron Barry, former tennis player for Union, became coach of the Union University Men's Tennis Team. With only three newcomers, the team is experienced and should be able to have a successful season. Last season, the team had the best season it has had in recent years with a record of 16 wins and 5 losses. Doug Stephenson and Roger Smith made the finals of the VSAC tournament and therefore made the All-Conference Team. The team, as a whole, finished third in the VSAC last year and should be a contender for the Western Division Championship this season.

During the summer, Doug Stephenson won the 1979 Roberts Cup Championship. Chris Maxwell was the eighteen years and under City Championship titleholder. Other returnees from last season are Roger Smith, Jeff Jones, and Howard Young, who is a four-year letterman. Newcomers were Andy Pearson, David Thomas and Wayne Boyd.

This spring, the team will play a twenty-five match schedule. New teams that have been added to the schedule this year are Arkansas State, David Lipscomb and Washington University. With the odds in their favor, the Men's Tennis team should have a successful season, and once again participate in the VSAC tournament.

Golf Team Makes Good Showing

The 1979-80 Union University Bulldog Golf Team consisted of four veteran returnees and three newcomers. Their coach is Mr. Don Morris, Western Divisional V.S.A.C. Coach for the 1979 year.

During the 1979 spring semester, they were engaged with eight regular matches and three tournaments. One of the tournaments in which the team participated was the Tennessee Intercollegiate Championship. In the previous 1978-79 year, the team won an impressive honor as co-champs for the West Division Volunteer State Athletic Conference.

In the fall semester, the team played in three different tournaments. Their first tournament was in Call, Alabama. In this tournament, the team placed fifth out of ten teams competing. Tracy Wilkins was voted as one of the members for the All-Tournament team.

Their second fall debut was at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock, where they finished fourth. Their last tournament of the fall was the Nashboro Village Open in Nashville. The squad finished with an impressive fifth place with twelve teams competing.

Junior Ronnie Stallings is the only three-year member of the relatively young team.

Cheerleaders Keep Everyone "Fired Up"

The cheerleaders complete one of their impressive pyramids.

An important part of a basketball program is the presence and vocal support of its fans. Instrumental in helping to engender the spirit of the fans and, in turn, the spirit of the teams are the Union University Cheerleaders. Boosting spirit is their business. Practicing endless hours and planning numerous projects to help raise spirit, the cheerleaders over and over prove themselves highly capable.

Leading the group as captain for the 1979-80 season was a senior, Debbie Martin. Viki Ellis served as spirit chairman for the squad. The group was later led during the season by Gloria Prater.

The Intramural Program Gives the Average Guy a Chance to Play

The Intramural program's whole purpose is to involve students who are interested in sports. The students who would not ordinarily be able to play in varsity sports get their chance to participate through the intramural program.

The program this year included flag football, softball, volleyball, basketball, cross country, frisbee, ping pong and tennis. Awards are given in the spring on Awards Day to the women's organization and the men's organization that exhibited the best athletic performance throughout the year.

The Union Bulldogs, thought by many to be contenders for the VSAC championship, opened their season on the road in East Tennessee. There, they gained a hard-fought 107-105 victory over Tusculum College, last year's VSAC champions. A day later, they traveled to Lincoln Memorial and won again by a 75-71 margin.

Homecoming found the Bulldogs at home facing Tusculum College once more. Union gained an early lead and never looked back as they raced to an 88-74 victory. It was College of the Ozarks that gave Union its first season loss by a narrow 91-88 margin.

Union next traveled to Lambuth College for the Bicentennial Exchange Club Tournament. The Bulldogs gained a thirteen point lead over Lambuth in the first round only to lose it in a disheartening 96-92 loss. The next night they bounced back and took third place with a 98-92 win over Freed-Hardeman. Kenny Lloyd was named to the All-Tournament team.

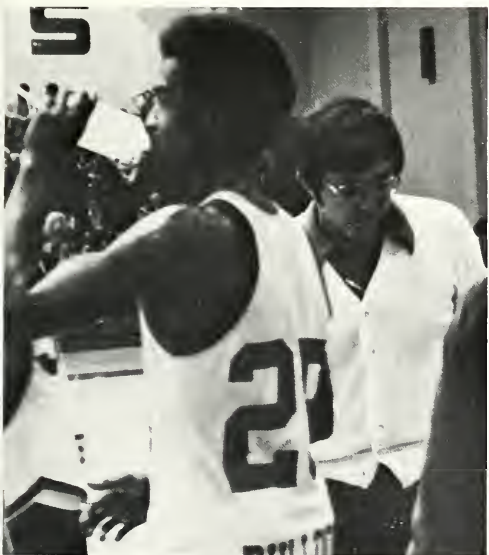

Returning home, Union's record slipped to 4-4 as they lost a 66-60 decision to Rust College and a 90-89 loss to cross-town rival Lane College. The Bulldogs then traveled to Memphis to compete in the Dixie Tournament at Southwestern. For the third time in a row, the Union Bulldogs, successfully defended their crown.

The right strategy can make all the difference.

Mike Owens lays it in.

Kenny Lloyd takes a short vacation.

The Bulldogs play defense.

Amid hardship Richard Rice makes two points.

Union overcame a twenty-point halftime deficit to defeat Christian Brothers by a narrow 74-71 margin. The second night the Bulldogs easily bested Southwestern for the title by a 92-77 score. Richard Rice was named to the All-Tournament team along with Kenny Lloyd who was selected Most Valuable Player for the third year in a row.

In their final game before Christmas, Union took an always tough David Lipscomb College. The Bulldogs rallied in the second half to win a 99-84 decision to raise their record to 7-4 at the Christmas break.

Union returned from the vacation by pounding David Lipscomb College 99-84, but then blew a healthy second-half lead in dropping its first conference game at Freed-Hardeman 83-82. The Bulldogs rebounded to win their first home VSAC contest 94-88 over Bethel.

Union then played one of its most impressive games in blasting Trevecca Nazarene 101-78, but the joy of that one was short-lived as the Bulldogs dropped a 98-96 decision at Lambuth when the Eagles were awarded two last-second free throws on a technical foul to break a tie contest. The technical was called because Union was whistled for trying to call a timeout when its allotment was up, although Bulldog scorers' records showed Union still had one remaining.

Coach Jim Swope's club bounced back to whip Lipscomb on the road 91-77 before the Bisons' top crowd of the season, and then returned home to edge Belmont 88-83. Union then lost its next three games, falling to VSAC West runner-up CBC 74-64 and to league champion LeMoyné-Owen 76-66 before Lane again posted a one-point decision over the Bulldogs in a 79-78 thriller.

Kenny Lloyd stays with his man.

Mike Greer does his thing in the dunking contest at the Red-White game on Campus Day.

Rory Carpenter works around the side against David Lipscomb College.

Steve Moore uses good timing to go up and tip the ball in.

The Bulldogs then jumped straight into the thick of the conference race by winning four straight VSAC games. A slight change in the lineup helped the Bulldogs drop Trevecca 80-74 as sophomore guard Mike Owens, in his first start, handed out 15 assists for a Union single-game all-time record.

Union avenged its league loss to Freed-Hardeman by dropping the Lions 82-71, and then the Bulldogs ripped homestanding Bethel 104-85 as Lloyd tossed in 26 points and Rice 23. Next in line was the highlight of Union's season. Swope's troops nipped Lambuth in overtime 101-99 before the largest crowd ever in the Bulldog gymnasium. Lloyd tossed in a career-high 28 points, including the game winners, while Rice became Union's all-time career scoring leader by eclipsing Scott Reynold's old mark of 1,844. Memphian Steve Moore added 20 points to bring his Bulldog scoring total to 1,000 points.

Belmont started a four-game losing skid for Union, however, edging the Bulldogs 66-65 despite a 24-point effort from freshman Tony Jones. CBC then squeaked out a 69-67 decision at Union before the Bulldogs lost a pair on the road, falling to Rust College 70-58 and to LeMoyne-Owen 76-67 despite Rice's 19 points and 14 rebounds.

The 15-13 season was good enough to get Union fifth-place drawings in both the VSAC Tournament and the NAIA District 24 Playoffs. Union was 14-8 in games with District 24 schools, ahead of all VSAC West clubs except champion LeMoyne-Owen.

Richard Rice gets a few quick words of advice from Coach Swope.

Lady Bulldogs Set New Record By Winning Twenty In A Row

Liz Weglicki, Tracy Garrett, Beverly Pryor, Sally Paire, Lisa Jackson, Lisa Caudle, Annette Edmonds, Linda Bartholomew, manager; Kathy Weatherford, manager; Coach Peggy Birmingham.

The Lady Bulldogs opened their season by playing nationally ranked Ole Miss. Although at one point during the first half, the Lady Bulldogs had a 34-14 lead, they were plagued by fouls and turnovers and fell victims to a relentless pressure defense as Ole Miss took the victory, 97-80. With the outstanding play of Sally Paire, the Lady Bulldogs were able to win their next game against Blue Mountain College 93-76.

Union went on to win at Homecoming against U.T. Martin 95-73. In this game Beverly Pryor tossed in 28 points, as Colleen Johnson and Lisa Caudle added 25 and 14 points respectively. Against Mississippi Industrial College, Beverly Pryor once again added 28 points to help snag the 77-49 win. Marva Rawlings played a key role in the win with nine rebounds and ten assists.

The Lady Bulldogs then traveled to Carbondale, Illinois where they beat nationally ranked Southern Illinois University 72-62. Johnson led Union scorers with 20 points while Pryor and Caudle each added 19.

The Union Lady Bulldogs entered the first ARC Basketball Tournament with a 5-1 record. They easily overcame Lane College in the first round by the score of 87-42, setting up a title match against Lambuth College. The Lady Bulldogs soared to a fifteen point halftime lead but had to hang on to beat the Eaglettes 70-66. In the final game before the Christmas break, Union mauled David Lipscomb 103-57 in a contest that was never close.

Kim Lampkins shoots above her opponents to make two.

Colleen Johnson plays tight defense against Ole Miss.

The Lady Bulldogs began the month of January by opening their conference action with an 81-52 rout of Freed-Hardeman in Henderson. Coach Peggy Birmingham's club then ripped Tennessee State 107-76 apparently unimpressed by the visitors' 8-1 record.

Union then travelled to Martin and downed the Lady Pacers 80-70 before besting defending VSAC champion Lambuth 91-80 on the Eaglettes' court. The Lady Bulldogs pushed their league mark to 3-0 by belting Belmont 78-61 at home and then posted two easy road triumphs, hammering David Lipscomb 98-60 and Christian Brothers 75-56.

Previously unbeaten LeMoyné-Owen came to Jackson then for a VSAC clash, but Birmingham's cagers blasted the Lady Magicians 91-69 to seize undisputed possession of first place.

An individual highlight came next as junior Colleen Johnson pumped in a school record 40 points in a 92-70 rout of crosstown rival Lane. Johnson went on to finish the season as the VSAC's leading scorer with a 22-point average, hitting fifty percent of her shots, mostly from long range.

OVC powerhouse Austin Peay State then came to Union, but the Lady Bulldogs hammered the visitors 78-63 for their eighteenth consecutive victory. Union made it 19 straight, tying the school record for consecutive wins, by edging scrappy Freed-Hardeman 72-69 as freshman Lisa Caudle drilled in 26 points.

Ann Pollard drives for two.

Kim Lampkins outjumps her LeMoyne-Owen opponent.

Sally Paire drives down the court.

Coach Peggy Birmingham keeps an eye on the situation on paper as well as on the action on the court.

Defense is the name of this game.

Marva Rawlings passes off.

The record fell two nights later as Union downed Mississippi Industrial 80-66 under the direction of Athletic Director David Blackstock, filling in for the flu-ridden Birmingham.

Returning to conference action, Union dropped a 97-89 decision to Lambuth and a 79-71 contest to Belmont, temporarily dropping the Lady Bulldogs to second place in the league. Union bounced back to take a 109-90 nonconference victory at Blue Mountain behind sophomore Kim Lampkin's career-high 34 points, and then jumped back into a tie for first in the VSAC by pounding CBC 95-56.

In that battle, Union fought back from a seven-point deficit and an injury to Lampkins to outduel the Lady Magicians 77-71 as Johnson tossed in 29 points. Lisa Caudle, who seemed to dominate action in the closing rally, scored 21 and gathered in 12 rebounds. Beverly Pryor netted 18 points and collected 15 caroms.

The regular season record of 24-3 and VSAC Western Division championship enabled the Lady Bulldogs to be seeded first in both the conference tournament and the TCWSF Division II State Tournament, both stepping stones to a possible trip to the Nationals in Dayton, Ohio.

For the season, Johnson averaged 22 points a game, Caudle 15, Pryor 14, Lampkins 10, and Sally Paire, 8. Johnson had the top field goal percentage, while Ann Pollard was the most accurate from the foul line. Pryor was the top rebounder, and Marva Rawlings established a new Union seasonal record for assists.

Liz Weglicki "ties up" an erring Lambuth Eagle.

HARD HAT AREA KEEP OUT

As I can now see the end in sight, I begin to realize the value of this year-long experience. I see it not only as a landmark of this day but a span between today and what the Lord would have me do tomorrow. Amid the tribulations of deadlines and other similar catastrophies, I found something that I enjoyed doing. My main objective was to incorporate the little ups and downs of everyday campus life into the yearbook along with the "big events," for often they are just as important and as dearly treasured.

I owe many thanks to Mrs. Betty Foellinger and to my associate editor Tony Hollingsworth. Many others have been instrumental in the making of this book, and to them I feel much appreciation. My deepest gratitude, however, is felt toward the One who alone sustains me and makes all things new.

... But inside myself is a place where I live all alone, and that's where you renew your springs that never dry up. Pearl Buck.
